Learn English with pleasure!

Make or do?

1.Look at the table and find out about the difference between 'make' and 'do'

Verb	Make
Make	We use make when we talk about creating something. Julia made a delicious cake for her family. My friend is a fashion designer. She makes nice clothes. Can you make me a coffee?
Do	We use do when we talk about general activities, duties, jobs and leisure activities. John did his homework yesterday. My friend is very fit. He does a lot of exercise. We often use do with something, anything, nothing and everything: I didn't do anything yesterday. We are going to do something special for her birthday.

2.Let's practice! Complete the sentences with do or make.

Tom: So, what did you _____[1] on Saturday?

Kate: Well, in the morning I _____[2] a big breakfast. Then I went to the gym to _____[3] some exercise.

Tom: What did you _____[4] after that?

Kate: Well, in the afternoon I _____[5] some shopping.

Tom: What did you buy?

Kate: I bought some clothes and also a new smartphone. It took ages to choose the right one. When I got back home, I _____[6] dinner. But I forgot to _____[7] my French homework again. And how was your day?

Tom: Not too bad. During the day, I didn't _____[8] anything special. I just stayed at home.

Kate: And in the evening?

Tom: In the evening, I invited some friends for dinner. We _____[9] a big mess in the kitchen!

Kate: Did they help you to _____[10] the dishes afterwards?

Tom: No, they didn't. I had to _____[11] the washing up myself.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

3. Let's practice - 2! Complete the sentences with do or make.

1. I had a lot of work to _____ last night. I didn't get much sleep.
2. Can you _____ me a cup of tea?
3. The situation is out of control. Can you _____ something?
4. Do you know how to _____ ice cream?
5. I can't see her. What is she _____ ing?
6. His phone _____ a strange noise when it rings.
7. Do you _____ any sports in your spare time?
8. I have a lot of tasks to _____ when I'm at work.
9. You're going to need more chocolate if you want to _____ that cake properly.
10. How often do you _____ the gardening?
11. Did you _____ a lot of skiing while you were in the mountains?
12. The Beatles _____ very popular songs in the 1960s.

LIVEWORKSHEETS