

sights - interest - beauty - parks - find out - appreciating - arrived - decided
 - felt - fascinating - useful - information - amazed - dark - whole

Word	POS	Definition	Write the words in the blanks.
		to experience an emotion	Everyone told me that England was so when I in London, I knew I would have a great time. My first stop was the Tourist Centre, where I went to about places to visit and of I was given such that I was able to plan trip. Despite the cold weather, I to visit some London's I had heard so much about them and knew London was the greenest city in Europe. In Hyde Park I was at the number of trees and plants everywhere. I felt myself relaxed and took time to walk around the beauty. I must have been there for hours. When I got to the Buckingham Palace it was so I decided to come back to the hotel. The next morning I was going shopping and I couldn't wait.
		a large public area in town used for recreation.
		a combination of qualities that pleases sight.
		greatly surprised
		with little or no light a thing that one sees or that can be seen.
		facts provided or learned about something or someone.
		Wanting to know or learn about something able to be used practical purpose.
		extremely interesting
		recognize the worth of something or someone.
		Learn
		all of reach a place at the end of a journey ≠ leave.
		make a choice from a number of alternatives	