If you hadn't come... THIRD CONDITIONAL B1 PRESENTATION

Watch the video, read the sentences below and order them 1 to 5:

- If I don't take an umbrella, it always rains ___
- If he hadn't come none of those would have happened ___
- If I take an umbrella, it never rains ___
- I wouldn't wear them if I were you! ___
- If I hadn't worn these shoes, I wouldn't have fallen ___

Which sentences talk about facts? ___ and ___

Which sentence gives some advice? ___

Which sentences speculate on something which happened in the past? ____ and ___

Each sentence has two parts: which word is connecting both parts? ____

Fill in the gaps with: ZERO / FIRST / SECOND / THIRD

- We use the _____ CONDITIONAL to talk about facts
- We use the _____ CONDITIONAL to talk about possibilities
- We use the _____ CONDITIONAL to talk about probabilities, to make hypotheses in the past or to give advice with "if I were you"
- We use the _____ CONDITIONAL to speculate on past events

LIVEWORKSHEETS

THIRD CONDITIONAl:

"If I hadn't worn those shoes, I wouldn't have fallen"

Look at the third conditional sentence above and fill in the gaps with the following words:

past participle / would / past perfect / wouldn't

Third conditional structure:

If-clause Main clause

(IF + _____), S + _____ / _____ have + _____

LIVEWORKSHEETS