

Directions: Fill in the blanks with given words.

a. family	b. ability	c. private	d. moderation
e. sufficiency	f. environmental	g. changes	h. economy
i. knowledge	j. civil servants	k. self-immunity	l. wisdom
m. philosophy	n. middle path	o. communities

The Sufficiency Economy Philosophy

The 1. _____ of "Sufficiency Economy" provides a set of living and practical guidelines for people at all social levels starting from 2. _____ to community and eventually the nation. On a larger scale, the principles stress the Buddhist 3. _____ that can be applied by the 4. _____ and public sectors in their development and management efforts, in particular at the national level in terms of 5. _____ and development in the global era.

Sufficiency suggests 6. _____, reasonableness and the need for sound 7. _____ given the impacts of external and internal 8. _____. However, in order to achieve 9. _____, an application of 10. _____ with due consideration and prudence is essential. Great care is also needed in the utilization of theories and methodologies in every step of the planning and implementation process. Moral foundations meanwhile represent an essential element to be fostered, in particular among 11. _____, theorists and the business 12. _____ at all levels through the cultivation of moral awareness, integrity and resourcefulness. Other qualities including perseverance, tolerance, conscience, 13. _____ and prudence required to achieve balance and the 14. _____ to cope appropriately with critical challenges arising from rapid and extensive socioeconomic, 15. _____ and cultural changes in the world are also mandatory.