

THIRD PERIOD – WRITING TEST
HIGH SCHOOL MAHATMA GANDHI CLASS

STUDENT'S NAME: _____

1 Choose the correct alternative.

- 1 I was incredibly / incredible tired. However, I felt much better after I'd gone to bed for half an hour.
- 2 Dan was late, so he ran as / like the wind and he got to the cinema just in time.
- 3 The couple next to him didn't stop talking. He had never felt so annoyed / annoying during a film.
- 4 We had never had / never had such a wonderful day out, despite the rain.
- 5 After coming last in the race, I fell down on the ground, feeling / to feel like a complete failure.
- 6 As / While we were leaving for the weekend, Oliver finally turned up.

/5

2 Write a summary of an article you have read recently. Use the prompts to help if necessary.

Write 150–200 words.

- The overall point/argument/theory that is put forward
- The first or main example that is used to explain the point
- One or two more details about the example or another point that is made
- An explanation of how the article/essay ends