Ed and Ing ending adjectives

Fill in a word from the box. Use each word once only.

bored	excited	satisfied	tired
boring	exciting	satisfying	tiring

1. Well done, Tom. I am very excited with your work exciting.

2. We were tired yesterday. We went to sleep early. tiring

3. This is one of the most interesting books I have every read. I love it! interested

4. We were exciting about seeing each other again. We were best friends excited many years ago.

5. The children soon became boring with all their toys. bored

6. [illegible]

Fill in the Conversations:

Grandma: Hi Dana, did you have an _____(interest) day?

Dana: Yes, I've had a very _____(excite) day. Today's my birthday.

Grandma: I'm a little _____(confuse). I thought your birthday is next month.

Dana: My brother's birthday is next month. Mine is today!

Grandma: Oh, I'm so _____(embarrass). I didn't get you a gift.

Dana: Well, that is a bit _____(disappoint), but it's okay.

Mrs. Ray: Have you heard the _____(astound) news about Orit and Dan?.

Mrs. Buta: Oh, you mean about them getting married? I was _____ (shock) when I heard about it. They are so young!

Mrs. Ray: Me too but weddings are so _____(excite)! I can't wait!

Mrs. Buta: Well, I'm _____(relieve) that the wedding won't be until next summer.