

- 1 Listen and repeat the verbs in colour in the trivia quiz below. Then match the sentences to the people in the pictures. Type the letters. Then check.

Trivia World

Who is it?

- 1 He invented the telephone and changed communication forever. ☐
- 2 He created Microsoft and Windows. ☐
- 3 This British professor discovered antibiotics and saved millions of lives. ☐
- 4 She can't see, but she competed in the Olympics. ☐
- 5 After years in prison, this South African leader received the Nobel Peace Prize. ☐
She is also a Nobel Peace Prize winner. She
- 6 looked after poor people in India and she collected food and clothing for them. ☐
- 7 This actor organised an event for the people of Haiti. Viewers donated $57 million in one night. ☐
- 8 He originally designed clothing for men. He helped men dress elegantly. ☐

Trivia World

Who is it?

Word Power A phrasal verb is the combination of a verb with a preposition or adverb. In phrasal verbs, the usual meaning of the verb changes. Find a phrasal verb with look in the trivia quiz. What do you think it means?

Phrasal verb:

Meaning:

- 1 He invented the telephone and changed communication forever.
- 2 He created Microsoft and Windows.
- 3 This British professor discovered antibiotics and saved millions of lives.
- 4 She can't see, but she competed in the Olympics.
- 5 After years in prison, this South African leader received the Nobel Peace Prize.
She is also a Nobel Peace Prize winner. She
- 6 looked after poor people in India and she collected food and clothing for them.
- 7 This actor organised an event for the people of Haiti. Viewers donated $57 million in one night.
- 8 He originally designed clothing for men. He helped men dress elegantly.