VOCABULARY BOOK EXAMPLES

Revise the first 4 examples in your vocabulary book. Fill in the gaps in these examples with the correct word. Drag and drop the correct pronunciation.

(= Repasa los primeros 4 ejemplos de tu cuaderno de vocabulario. Rellena los huecos de estos ejemplos con la palabra correcta. Arrastra la pronunciación correcta.)

/ ðɪz / / ðiːz / / ðæt / / ðəʊz / Translation:

1. _____ is my vocabulary book.
   / /
2. _____ are my first two examples.
   / /
3. _____ symbols under a new word show the pronunciation.
   / /
4. _____ symbol _____ is similar to a “d” is how you pronounce “th” in many grammar words.
   / /

LIVEWORKSHEETS

EXERCISE 2

Fill in the gaps in these examples with the correct demonstrative.

(= Rellena los huecos de estos ejemplos con el demostrativo correcto.)

There are four demonstratives in English:

We use _____ to refer to ONE person or object which is NEAR the speaker. We often use _____ to introduce two people:

—— John, _____ is my sister Jane.
—— Pleased to meet you, Jane.

We use _____ to refer to ONE person or object which is NOT NEAR the speaker.

We use _____ to refer to MORE THAN ONE person or object which are NEAR the speaker.

We use _____ to refer to MORE THAN ONE person or object which are NOT NEAR the speaker.

Translation:

LIVEWORKSHEETS