

ART FROM QUITO

They were workshops where paintings, sculptures, furniture were made and sold in the city. Artists and artisans from Quito belonged to these places.

There were colonial artists who made works, but these works were always anonymous, they were not named.

They made religious architecture, which is now known as art.

The architecture

Quito School

Quito workshops