

Speaking Activity

Use the following illustrations to explain your symptoms to the doctor.

Missing Words

Watch the video and complete the sentences.

Dr.Evans: Hello Mr.McKay. What ¹ you here today?

Tony: I have a ² and a ³

Dr.Evans: Okay Tony. I see your ⁴ is a hundred and four degrees. That's very high.

Tony: Yes, I feel very ⁵ and nauseous.

Dr.Evans: Did you get sick?

Tony: Yes, I⁶ twice this morning.

Dr.Evans: Did you have any diarrhea?

Tony: Yes, a little bit.

Dr.Evans: Did you take any medicine to treat your⁷?

Tony: No doctor. I didn't take anything.

Dr.Evans: Okay, sounds like you may have some⁸

Tony: Oh, no.

Dr.Evans: Take this medicine now and again every six hours until it's finished. You'll be okay in about twenty-four hours.

Tony: That's a relief. Thank you very much doctor.

Matching

Match the words on the left with the meanings on the right.

- | | |
|---------------|---|
| 1 temperature | A. painful or aching |
| 2 sore | B. a physical sign of something |
| 3 fever | C. feeling like everything is turning around |
| 4 symptom | D. something used to treat an illness or injury |
| 5 medicine | E. an unusually high body temperature |
| 6 nauseous | F. the act of getting sick through the mouth |
| 7 dizzy | G. feeling like you want to vomit |
| 8 vomit | H. a measure of warmth of coldness |

