

READING COMPREHENSION (NO.4)

READING 1: Read the story about Joshua and Jack. Then answer the questions.

Joshua wanted to play basketball with Jack on Saturday afternoon. He called Jack. "Hi, Jack. This is Joshua. Do you want to play basketball with me now?" "I'm sorry, but I can't. I'm at the Riverdale Community Center," Jack replied. Joshua became curious and asked, "What are you doing there?" "I'm helping my mom raise money for children in the hospital. I'm selling cookies," Jack explained. "That sounds interesting," Joshua replied. "Why don't you sell cookies with me?" asked Jack. "We are going to visit the children at the hospital later, and play with them, too." Joshua thought it was a good idea and said, "OK. I will be right there."

Later that day, Joshua and Jack sold all the cookies, and the fundraiser was successful. "So how was your first time volunteering?" Jack asked. "It was so fun," Joshua answered. "I didn't know I could do something to help others." "Wait until you meet the children at the hospital," said Jack. "They may be physically weaker than us, but it's so much fun playing with them."

Joshua and Jack visited the hospital with the other volunteers after the fundraiser. They did face painting and watched a magic show with the children at the hospital. On the way home, Joshua thought to himself, "Today has been the best day ever! I never knew helping others could be this much fun!"

READING 2: Read the text to know how Nam has improved his English and answer the questions.

In the first year of lower secondary school I had some difficulties in learning English. My English pronunciation was really bad and my English grammar was worse.

I did not know how to improve them. I didn't want my father and mother to know about this. One afternoon after the lesson, my teacher of English told me to wait for her outside the classroom. She took me to the school library and showed me tapes of pronunciation drills kept in a glass bookcase. She also told me how to use an English-English dictionary to improve my English grammar. "Now I think you know what you should do," she said. I made much progress and only one year later, I won the first prize in the English Speaking Contest held for secondary school students in my hometown.

Question 1: What difficulties did Nam have in learning English in the first year?

- A. The pronunciation
- B. The grammar
- C. Both pronunciation and grammar
- D. The way of improving his pronunciation

Question 2: Who wanted to meet him one afternoon after the lesson?

- A. His teacher
- B. One of his friends
- C. His father
- D. His mother

Question 3: Where did Nam and his teacher go after that?

- A. to the town library
- B. to the school library
- C. to the teachers' room
- D. to his house

Question 4: What did the teacher show him then?

- A. A glass bookcase
- B. An English-English dictionary
- C. An English Grammar book
- D. Cassettes of pronunciation drills

Question 5: What did he win in the English Speaking Contest one year later?

- A. The first prize
- B. The second prize
- C. The third prize
- D. The fourth prize

READING 3: Read the story and answer the questions.

My grandfather loves to grow plants. He raises vegetables and fruits, and he takes great care of all of them. Last week, Grandpa gave me some green bean seeds. Now I can grow my own green bean plant.

I brought my seeds home and showed my mom. She helped me get my green bean project ready. First, we put some soil in a pot. Then we planted a few seeds. I remembered that Grandpa told me that plants depend on water and sunlight to grow. So I put the pot in a sunny spot by the window, and I added some water.

I checked on my plant every day. When the soil felt dry, I added more water. Today, I saw a tiny stem. The plant is growing! Over the next few weeks, more stems and leaves will grow. Then flowers will grow, too.

What am I most excited about? I cannot wait to eat the beans! I think they will taste even better because I grew them myself.

It was five o'clock in the evening when Rene Wagner came home from work. She walked into the living room and looked at her three children. They are 14,13 and 9 years old. They were watching TV. The living room was a mess. There were dirty socks on the floor and cookies on the sofa. Games and toys were everywhere. Rene was angry, “This place is a mess,” she tells her children, “I can’t work all day and then do housework all evening. I’m not going to do housework!” Rene didn’t do housework. She didn’t clean or wash dishes. She didn’t wash clothes, either. Every evening she sat on the sofa and watched TV.

After two weeks, every plate, fork, and glass in the house was dirty. All children’s clothes were dirty. Every garbage basket was full. The house was a mess. Then, one day Rene came home from work and got a big surprise. The kitchen was clean. The children cleaned the kitchen! The next day, the living room was clean, and the children were washing their clothes. Rene told the children “OK, I’ll do the housework again. But you have to help me.” Now Rene and her three children do the housework together. Then they all sit on the sofa and watch TV!
