Al-Makassed Dawha School

Grade: 3; School Year: 2021-2022

Name: _____

Questions Sheet- Bear Feels Sorry

1- Choose "True" or "False":

- The green trees covered the top of the mountain.
- The spring came out from the foot of the mountain.
- A nice, friendly bear would visit the spring every morning.
- The spring shouted at the foolish bear.
- Suddenly, the water in the stream stopped flowing.
- The bear was unhappy and grew mad.
- The bear harmed himself and others when he forced the spring to disappear.
- The bear felt sorry at the end.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

2- Choose the correct answer:

- The bear's lips were cut because he was too _____.
- The spring was polite, but the bear was very _____.
- Finally, the bear was begging for _____.
- The spring stopped flowing because he was _____ with the bear.
- The bear felt sorry, but the spring wouldn't _____ again.

3- Rearrange into a story using numbers:

The spring got angry and decided to stop flowing.

The following morning, the bear came but found no water.

The bear beat against the water with hands and feet.

Once upon a time, there was a lovely spring flowing in a beautiful place.

The bear cried and begged for water.

A rude bear would come for play every day.

The bear was very sorry.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

4- Answer the following questions:

Did the bear have the right to spoil the water in the spring?

_____

Do you think the bear felt sorry at the end?

_____

Who do you like more? The bear or the spring?

_____

What does the fable teach you?

_____

LIVEWORKSHEETS