

PUT THE WORD WHERE IT BELONGS

Ankle /æŋ.kl/		I fell over and twisted my .....
calf /kɑ:f/		A fish bone got stuck in my .....
Chest /tʃest/		He folded his arms across his .....
elbow /'el.bəʊ/		Her arm was bandaged from the ..... to the fingers
forehead /'fɔ:.hed/		I burnt my ..... on some soup last night.
hip /hɪp/		I injured my ..... playing tennis.
knee /ni:/		I rested my head on her .....
lip /lɪp/		My ..... ached terribly after the climb.
shin /ʃɪn/		She kissed me on the .....
shoulder /'ʃəul.də/		He has not been able to play football since January because his ..... was hurting.
thigh /θaɪ/		She's got a high .....
throat /θrəut/		She's got a nasty bruise on her .....
tongue /tʌŋ/		The baby was crawling around on its hands and .....
wrist /rist/		The skirt was a bit tight across the .....