So even if you have been to the city many times before, there's something new to view and somewhere different to go in a city full of surprises.

B. London's shops cover the complete spectrum of fashion — from traditional, high-class tailoring, through top designer names, trend-setting street fashion to retro, antique and period clothes. I will never forget my first visit to the Bolshoy Theatre. My mother bought two advance tickets for a performance of the ballet "Sleeping Beauty" by Tchaikovsky. We had come to the theatre long before the performance began. A sign at the entrance of the theatre said "full house".

We left our coats in the cloakroom and bought a programme from the usher to see what the cast was. When we walked into the hall, the orchestra was tuning in their instruments. We found our seats which were in the stalls and went exploring the theatre. My mother showed me the boxes, the pit, the dress-circle and the balconies.

At 12 sharp, the lights went down. The conductor appeared, the curtain went up. I had never seen anything more wonderful. The scenery and the dancing were superb. The ballet seemed to be a fairy tale. When the last curtain fell, the house burst into applause. The performance was a great success with the public. It was one of my brightest memories.
