Dear Alice,

I'm writing this letter to tell you how wonderful time I am(1) here on Crete. I know you will be surprised to hear that, but I just did not have time to phone you and tell you that I was going on holiday (I'm sorry). In fact, it was a quick decision that I made to(2) a few days off and shake off all my problems and worries (at least for a while) and also to get some relax (remember how hard I worked recently). On Friday I phoned a travel agent and(3) a last minute trip. On Sunday morning I was on board of the plane and the moment it left the ground I felt great relief. A few hours later I was already in my hotel(4) a gorgeous sandy beach. I have already(5) some suntan but I'm certainly going to(6) some more on the beach. And the water in the sea is wonderful. I just can't get enough of(7) in it. I have bought a snorkel and hope to(8) a little and watch the colourful sea fish. The people here are amazing. I have made a few new friends. One has promised to teach me to(9) on his desk (remember how crazy I was about learning it last time we went to the seaside?). And another has promised to show me round to some places of historic value. I can't wait to(10) the sights in this fantastic place, especially the ancient ruins. I have already(11) on an excursion to Iraklion, the major city on the island, and have(12) a few museums. I was delighted at what I saw and that's why I want to see some more. I am planning to(13) a lot of photographs of the places, so I can show them to you and the other guys. I have(14) you a souvenir, but I won't tell you what it is. I'm sure it will be a nice surprise for you. If I find some time, I will(15) a few postcards to the family and friends. I have to finish now. I'm going to the beach to watch the sunset and I can't be late. We'll see each other soon and I will tell you some more. Love. Karen.
