

Complete the summaries of James Cameron's answers to the questions above.

1. They did not use any / used some of the techniques from 1984 to film Avatar. Still the job of a film director remained the same / changed completely: to tell the story using images and sounds.

2. They have been planning to film sequels / one movie with all the new technology they created / they are planning to develop.

3. James Cameron is optimistic / pessimistic about the future of cinema. He believes people enjoy watching films together as a group / at home in comfort.

4. The technology for watching 3D at home is not developed / cheap enough yet, though it's a question of a couple of / 10 years. The problem is the number / quality of films and programmes made for 3D TVs.

5. James Cameron says that China and Russia are likely / unlikely to replace Hollywood as the centre of global entertainment. Other filmmakers turn there for money especially if they plan to make the movies for their own markets / shown worldwide.

6. He is / Until he's 96.

LIVEWORKSHEETS