

Послушайте текст "Some Russian Holidays" и соотнесите цифры с праздниками.

Цифры записывать по возрастанию.

Например, писать 26, а не 62.

Пробелов и запятых НЕ ставить.

The New year's Day _____

The 23rd of February _____

Maslenitsa _____

The 8th of March _____

Easter _____

The 1st of May _____

Victory day _____

1 a special day for people who defend their Motherland

2 a special day to remember people who died in the Second World War

3 the first holiday of the year

4 people cook or buy "kulitchi" and paint eggs

5 depends on the church calendar

6 people eat pancakes and have snow battles outdoors

7 people listen to the Kremlin Clock and count to twelve

8 you can see fir trees (ёлки) practically in all homes

9 women look wonderful and get flowers and presents

10 men and boys try to be kind, polite and helpful

11 people go to cemeteries (кладбища) to remember the dead

12 veterans meet in Moscow near the Bolshoi Theatre

