Chuseok – Korean Thanksgiving Day

Diego Santos, May 4

Chuseok is one of the most important holidays in South Korea.

This festival lasts three days and it starts on the fifteenth day of the eighth lunar month. Before Chuseok, people go back to their hometowns to spend time with their families as well as their friends. In the morning of the first day of Chuseok, people wear hanbok and visit their older family members. During Chuseok, they eat traditional foods like songpyeon (rice cakes) and jeon (pancakes). Korean people also play many traditional games and activities during their Thanksgiving holidays. Traditional games like talchum (mask dancing), ganggangsullae (circle dancing), and ssireum (wrestling) are popular during Chuseok. This is one of the biggest holidays in South Korea.
