

I. Match (1-8) with (a-h) to complete the sentences.

1. If the flood comes	A. if there is a heat wave.
2. Drink more water	B. you don't have food and drink.
3. Prepare your shelter	C. the temperature may drop to below
4. If the thunderstorm comes,	D. call the police.
5. If you don't have supplies,	E. if a tropical storm comes.
6. Bring the flashlight	F. there are thunder and lightning.
7. If you have an accident,	G. if it's dark outside.
8. If there is a blizzard,	H. we travel on a boat.

1. 2. 3. 4.
5. 6. 7. 8.

II. Complete the sentences. Use Zero Conditional.

1. If you heat (heat) ice, it melts (melt).
2. If there (be) high winds in the desert, they (cause) sandstorms.
3. If you (not / water) plants, they (die).
4. If it (rain), I (not/ go out).
5. If we (eat) too many sweets, we (get) fat.
6. If the weather (be) too cold, the water
(freeze).
7. Food (taste) better if you (be) hungry.
8. Eating candies (not give) you energy if you
(be) tired.

III. Complete the sentences.

1. Everyone in the town has to to a higher place because of the flood.
2. We are in our to hide from the storm because this is the safest place right now. The electricity goes off when the storm gets worse; luckily, we still have a to see in the dark.
3. Making a to prepare for bad weather is important. Remember to note down the police's phone number in case of.....