

WHO AND WHICH

1. Join the two sentences using who or which.

I'm going to meet an actor. I saw him in a film on Saturday.

It was a very boring film. Your friend chose it from the programme.

We love our house. My Granddad built it 30 years ago.

She is a beautiful girl. I want to invite her to my party.

I haven't finished the book. I bought it last week.

My little brother has seen a flying witch. He tried to kill her.

2. Fill in the sentences with who or which.

1. Paul's phone, he got for his birthday, was very expensive.
2. The actress I saw in the bookshop wants to film in our school.
3. This is the new car broke down yesterday on the motorway.
4. My father wants to talk to the builders worked for his friend.
5. I never want to see the dog I met when I was 3 years old.
6. This is the basketball coach John talked about yesterday.
7. Where are the scissors I was using a minute ago?
8. My mother doesn't want see the scarf I have chosen.