Instructions: Drop and drop the names from the table to fill in the 15th century map of the Iberian Peninsula.

The Kingdom of Granada	The Crown of Aragón	The Kingdom of Portugal
The Crown of Castile	The Kingdom of Navarre

Instructions: Using the dropdown boxes, answer the multiple-choice questions.

1. Where did monks live?
    a. Palaces
    b. Monasteries
    c. Cathedrals
2. Most of the population consisted of _____.
    a. Clergy
    b. Noblemen
    c. Peasants
3. As a result of the growth in trade, cities
    a. Had a decrease in population
    b. Grew bigger and bigger
    c. Stayed the same

4. What did Medieval cities have?
    a. A castle, a cathedral, and a church
    b. A city hall, palaces, and a marketplace
    c. All of the above 5. Who did the king give land to?
    a. Clergy
    b. Serfs
    c. Noblemen
6. Who was a part of the clergy?
    a. Bishops and monks
    b. Monks and serfs
    c. Peasants and serfs
7. In 1492, the Catholic Monarchs conquered:
    a. The Crown of Aragón
    b. The Kingdom of Granada
    c. The Kingdom of Portugal 8. How long did the Christians fight against the Muslims?
    a. For over six centuries
    b. For 200 years
    c. For over seven centuries

Instructions: Drag and drop the words from the table to label the feudal system pyramid.

Kings and Queens	Noblemen and clergy	Peasants

