Exercise 2. Listen and fill in the blank (Track 2)

Last December I travelled to Thailand for a holiday. In Bangkok, there is a very popular market that only opens on the weekends. It's called Chatuchak Market; and it has about 7,000 ..... /ˈvendərz/.

I went to the market early on Saturday morning. It was very hot, but not too crowded. There were so many different things for sale - not just things for tourists, but also all kinds of clothes, shoes, bags, jewellery, household goods, books, food and ..... /drɪŋk/.

Everything was very cheap, and the quality was also good. The vendors were also very kind and helpful.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

I bought a couple of shirts, some ...../ˈɪŋglɪʃ/ books, and a leather wallet. After a while, I was very hot and thirsty, so i also bought some water and ice cream.

..... /ˈʃɑ:pɪŋ/ in Chatuchak Market was memorable because it was such a huge market and you could buy almost anything there. It was impossible to see the ..... /ɪnˈtaɪər/ place, so I just walked around and looked at things that interested me. In fact, at one point, I was worried that I wouldn't be able to ..... /faɪnd/ the way out. At about 1:30 P.M., the market was getting very crowded, and I was getting hot and tired, so I decided to leave.

If you've ever in Bangkok on the weekend, I would suggest that you visit the market.

Exercise 3. Speaking Part 1

Record yourself in the following sample.

Q. Do you like the neighbourhood you live in? [Why/Why not?]

Sample Answer:

Yes, I do like the neighbourhood, in which I live, mainly because I have lived in this neighbourhood for a long, long time where everything is so familiar to me. Besides, this is a rather clean neighbourhood where houses and homes are built in a planned manner. I like my neighbourhood also because people here are mostly very friendly.
