

Chromosomes unwind and two nuclei begin to form

Copied DNA becomes visible as chromosome pairs and spindle fibers begin to form

Chromosomes line up in the middle of the cell

Sister chromatids separate as the spindle fibers pull them to opposite sides of the cell

Prophase	Metaphase	Anaphase	Telophase

LIVEWORKSHEETS