

A morning in Krakow

Radio programme about travel

Tim Fowler presents a radio programme about travel called Guide for Globetrotters. You are going to listen to Tim's programme from Krakow, Poland.

1 Listen to the radio programme.

Number the things in the order you hear them.

- cake shops
- gardens around the city
- an art museum
- an old street with fourteenth century town houses
- 1 Easter Monday traditions
- a roof top café

2 Listen again and choose the correct answers.

- 1 Why is the presenter carrying his umbrella?
  - A It's raining heavily.
  - B Someone might throw water on him.
  - C It might rain later.
- 2 What is special about the café on the roof of the music academy?
  - A You can get the best view of the city from here.
  - B Film directors love this café.
  - C You can get the best coffee in Krakow here.
- 3 What connection does the Museum of Contemporary Art have with Oskar Schindler?
  - A Spielberg's film about Oskar, Schindler's List, was filmed at the museum.
  - B The museum was built on the site of Oskar Schindler's factory.
- 4 Why is Krakow a great city if you love eating sweet things?
  - A Cakes are very cheap.
  - B There are lots of cake shops and cafés.
  - C It is easy to find a good dentist in Krakow.
- 5 Why did the presenter leave his umbrella in the hotel?
  - A It was sunny and he felt silly carrying it.
  - B He hadn't seen anyone throwing water for a while.
  - C Both A and B.