

Match the statement to the correct level of the feudal system.

Serfs were peasants who served a nobleman.

Peasants worked the land.

Monks lived in monasteries.

The king was the highest political authority.

Noblemen protected the king and the land.

The clergy carried out religious and cultural activities.

