True or False? Correct the false sentences:

a) The Revolt of Aranjuez was an uprising against Carlos IV in March, 1808.

_____

b) The central ideas of the French Revolution were liberty, equality and justice.

_____

c) In the late 18th century, there were huge social inequalities between the nobility and the ordinary people.

_____

d) After France became a republic, the law recognised poor citizens as equal.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Circle the correct option:

a) The French king, Louis XVI, ruled as a powerful / an absolute monarch.

b) The Bastille prison / palace was a symbol of the French king's power.

c) The empire / law recognised all citizens as equal and the nobility lost their special privileges.

d) Ordinary / All people could vote in elections.

e) France became a republic as a result of / during the revolution.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Choose the correct information and write the complete sentence below:

The Carlist Wars...

a) separated government into three branches.
b) were about succession of the throne.
c) returned Fernando VII to power.

A guerilla war...

a) was started by the Liberals.
b) began the Carlist Wars.
c) was fought by the Spanish rebels against the French.

Freedom of the press...

a) was established by the Constitution of Cadiz.
b) was abolished by Fernando VII.
c) was supported by the Carlist.

Isabel II...

a) ruled until she was 18 years old.
b) became queen after Fernando VII changed the law.
c) abolished the Spanish Inquisition.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Complete the table with the following words:

1833 – 1839 guerilla war Joseph I Maria Cristina and Isabel II 1808 - 1814
Constitution of Cádiz succession Liberal victory freedom of the press

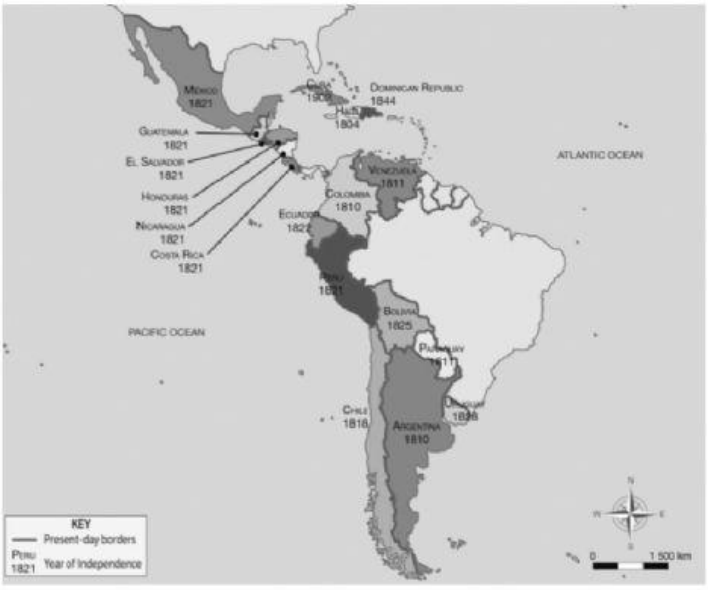

The Carlist Wars	The Spanish War of Independence

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Find the countries on the map and match them to the year they became independent:

Mexico	a) 1818
Colombia	b) 1821
Ecuador	c) 1804
Venezuela	d) 1902
Cuba	e) 1811
Dominican Republic	f) 1810
Chile	g) 1844
Haiti	h) 1822

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Complete with the words in the box:

War of Independence	French Revolution	freedom
between	colonists	rights
independent	colonies

a) _____ 1810 and 1825 most of Spain's colonies in America became _____.

b) The _____ were influenced by the _____.

c) During the _____, Spain was busy fighting against the French, so its control over the _____ was weaker than before.

d) The colonists wanted more _____ and _____ from Spanish control.

LIVEWORKSHEETS