

Before Christmas...

Today is December 25th. Santa can relax. Can you tell what he did the other days in December? Look at the pictures and write sentences in simple past

|                                                                                     |                                                                                     |                                                                                     |                                                                                      |                                                                                       |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|    |    |    |    |    |
| On December 1st he grilled a chicken.                                               |                                                                                     |                                                                                     |                                                                                      |                                                                                       |
|    |    |    |    |    |
|                                                                                     |                                                                                     |                                                                                     |                                                                                      |                                                                                       |
|   |   |   |   |   |
|                                                                                     |                                                                                     |                                                                                     |                                                                                      |                                                                                       |
|  |  |  |  |  |
|                                                                                     |                                                                                     |                                                                                     |                                                                                      |                                                                                       |
|  |  |  |  |  |
|                                                                                     |                                                                                     |                                                                                     |                                                                                      | December 25 th he relaxes.                                                 |

read the wish list – ride a bike – grill a chicken – enter the house through the chimney – travel in the sleigh – eat the chicken – dance – work – bring a Christmas tree – put the gifts in the sack – ski – listen to music – play ice hockey – skate – take a sunbath – ride a reindeer – work out – fly an airplane – meet children – play the guitar – go shopping – decorate the Christmas tree – run