A CREEPY STORY

My uncle Fred used to work at a science museum. One night, something very strange happened.

It was late and nobody was in the museum. He was in the Moon Room when he heard something in the Space Travel Room. He ran in there and saw something creepy behind an astronaut but it was dark and he couldn't see well. Then, he heard a voice say 'Fred, we are here for you!' He ran out of the room and ran all the way to the police station. When he went back to the museum with two police officers, they found nothing. What was it? It's a mystery. Anyway, my uncle didn't go back to the museum ever again.
