

UNIT 7 - TEEN FICTION

PG 43

4 Read the interview with Malorie Blackman. Then match the questions to the paragraphs
1	Why did you decide to become a writer?
2	Do you ever worry that young people might struggle with the complex questions your books raise?
3	What inspired you to write your first novel?
4	How can teenagers be encouraged to keep reading?
5	Have you ever belonged to a writer's group – and if so, was it useful?
6	Why do you like writing for children and teens?
5	Read the interview again.
n which paragraph does Malorie Blackman
1	praise teenagers for being open to different ideas?
2	argue that teenagers need to experience adult topics through reading?
3	mention that she was helped by other authors?
4	talk about a change in her attitude to being an author?
5	explain her views on why some children aren't keen to read?
6	give some details about the ideas behind one of her books?
5	Match the highlighted words and phrases in the interview to the meanings.
	1 make me extremely annoyed
	2 because of someone or something
į,	3 form sensible opinions
	4 have experience of seeing, feeling, reading about, etc.
	5 person
	5 in some ways
	7 to say only the final result of a situation or story
-	B enjoyable way of spending your time

