

Vocal range is the distance between the highest note a singer can sing and the lowest note a singer can sing. A large range means the singer can sing very high and very low.

Read the sentence and click true or false.

This singer can only sing high.

True or False

This singer can only sing low.

True or False

This singer can sing low and high.

True or False

This singer has a big range.

True or False