Dan's First Visit to London

When Dan saw the city, he was very surprised. So many red buses and black taxis were running in the streets. A lot of people were walking on the pathways and in the parks. Next day, they went on a tour around London. They stopped in Trafalgar Square to admire Nelson's Column. There, people were feeding the pigeons. Then they visited the British Museum and the London Eye. Dan was happy when they were flying over London.
