Dan's First Visit to London

Dan was born in London. When he was three year old, his family moved to Washington DC. Last year, his parents took him to London for the first time. He was excited. He wanted to see his grandparents. He also wanted to see the London Eye and the London Zoo. His grandparents met them at the airport.

When Dan saw the city, he was very surprised. So many red buses and black taxis were running in the streets. A lot of people were walking on the pathways and in the parks. Next day, they went on a tour around London. They stopped in Trafalgar Square to admire Nelson's Column. There, people were feeding the pigeons.
