

Project 5 Home sweet home! Part 1 Welcome to my house

Worksheet 1 : Houses in the UK and the USA

Different houses, same home

ACTIVITY 1 - Listen and repeat these adjectives.

old	poor	dark	conventional	small	identical
new	rich	colourful	original	big/ spacious	lonely

ACTIVITY 2 - Look at these different types of houses. They are from English-speaking countries. Listen and repeat. Match each house with the corresponding adjectives.

Terraced houses in Ireland
(made of bricks)

Apartments
in New York, USA
(made of bricks)

Skyscrapers
in Los Angeles, USA
(made of glass)

Traditional houses
in Santa Fe, USA
(made of mud)

Igloo
in Alaska, USA
(made of snow)

Traditional houses
in Hawai'i, USA
(made of straw)

Plantation house
in Louisiana, USA
(made of bricks)

Buckingham Palace
in London, England
(made of bricks)

ACTIVITY 3 - Guess the French translation for these adjectives.

old	poor	dark	conventional	small	identical

new	rich	colourful	original	big/ spacious	lonely

ACTIVITY 4 – Don't look at page 1 and memorize. Match the adjectives in pairs :

poor • small • old • dark • conventional •

• new
• original
• rich
• big/spacious • colourful

ACTIVITY 5 – Describe these houses and answer the question.

a) Find the corresponding adjectives:

b) You can see these houses in a famous story. They are the houses of ...
Select the right answer.

Cinderella

Three Little Pigs

Jack and the Beanstalk

Little Tom Thumb

ACTIVITY 6 - Use 3 adjectives and describe your house. Write a short paragraph in English (10 words minimum).