Complete the newspaper article below with the words a-i.

a. renewable	d. fossil	g. long-term
b. nuclear	e. run out	h. harnessing
c. solar power	f. geothermal	i. hydroelectric

The Future of Energy

The future of energy is changing. Scientists claim that (1) _____fuels need to be replaced by alternative forms of energy, such as (2) _____, (3) _____, nuclear and solar energy.

These older fuels, such as oil and gas, are in short supply and may (4) _____ in the near future. So what are the alternative forms of energy could be used? (5) _____ is quite a popular choice for many. (6) _____ the sun for its energy has been recommended by the government's Department for Energy as a cost-effective and (7) _____ solution for both businesses and individuals. However, although cost effective in the long run, the setup costs can be high. Others have argued that (8) _____ energy would be a better solution. This, however, is very questionable. The issue of radioactive waste is always raised by its opponents because of the fear of contamination if something goes wrong

LIVEWORKSHEETS