

Will Future - Review

Form affirmative statements (will), negative statements (won't) or questions where necessary.

1. Peter and Paul _____ (go) to France next week. They _____ (get up) very early and go to the airport. They _____ (take) the bus because a taxi _____ (cost) too much money. They _____ (not go) by train, because the train _____ (not be) there on time.
2. I _____ (meet) my friend Sarah tomorrow. She _____ (move) to Australia in a couple of weeks. She has found a new job there and she _____ (not visit) me for the next 6 months. I've asked her: "_____ you _____ (live) in Australia forever?". She answered: "No, of course _____ (Kurzantwort)".
3. James _____ (marry) his girlfriend Lara next month. They _____ (travel) to Jamaica for their honeymoon. They _____ (not stay) very long, though - only for 4 days. They _____ (not spend) much money, too. The wedding was too expensive and they _____ (get) a baby soon.
4. A: "When _____ Paula and Alex _____ (arrive) in town?"
B: "I think they _____ (come) on Thursday afternoon."
A: "Yes, right, but they _____ (not bring) their dog with them, will they?"
B: "No, they _____ (take) him here by car."
A: "But, _____ they _____ (leave) him at home all alone?"
B: "No, _____ (Kurzantwort). Alex's mother _____ (take care) of him."
5. A: "_____ you _____ (eat) all those sandwiches alone?"
B: "Yes, _____ (Kurzantwort). I'm really hungry."
A: "_____ you _____ (help) me with the housework after you will have eaten your sandwiches?"
B: "No, _____ (Kurzantwort). I'm really busy at the moment. I have to do lots of things for school."
A: "Ok, but then you _____ (not play) PlayStation all day and you _____ (not watch) TV in the evening, too."
B: "That's ok. _____ (not be) at home tonight, anyway."