How to Have a British Christmas - Anglophenia Ep 20

Tradition 1

1) in America kids write letters to Santa and _____ them in the mailbox but in England we toss them straight in the fire

2) we're not trying to make children cry - burning the letters _____ them directly to the North Pole where Santa can read your Christmas wishes in the smoke

3) yes it may seem ___ _____ weird but it does save on postage

Tradition 2

1) American children traditionally ____ stockings around the fireplace

2) being surrounded by presents is a great way ___ _____ ___ on Christmas morning

3) also instead of _____ out milk and cookies for father Christmas we leave him brandy and a mince pie because he is a grown up

Tradition 3

inside the cracker is usually a cheesy plastic prize a _____ _____ and a terrible joke

Tradition 4

1) Inside the Christmas cracker are _____ paper hats

2) that it is absolutely mandatory to wear ____ _____ 90% of Christmas arguments stem from trying to make your grumpiest relative put their paper crown on

Tradition 5

a British Christmas dinner is just as big a feast as an American one the main dish is usually _____ _____ often surrounded by bacon-wrapped chipolatas

Tradition 7

Her Majesty the Queen _____ a holiday speech reflecting on the events of the past year we all sit _____ pretending to pay _____ but secretly carrying on with whatever it was we were doing before

Tradition 8

Day its origins are debatable some say that it's a day when _____ would receive a box of gifts from their bosses

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Tradition 8

these are plays for kids based on _____ _____ such as Cinderella and Aladdin

Tradition 9

We Brits believe that the Christmas tree and _____ should be taken down within 12 days of Christmas

LIVEWORKSHEETS