

Casa Batlló in Barcelona is a unique apartment building designed by Gaudí.

The Work of Antoni Gaudí

In Barcelona, both visitors and _____<sup>1</sup> know about the _____<sup>2</sup> Antoni Gaudí. His influence is _____<sup>3</sup> throughout the city: there's a park, apartment buildings, and even a cathedral that have his unique style.

One of the most popular Gaudí sites isn't a building at all. The Park Güell has walking trails and woods. There are _____<sup>4</sup> places to sit, and the gardens invite visitors to relax and enjoy nature. The park is _____<sup>5</sup> free, but you need a ticket to enter the Monumental _____<sup>6</sup>, an area where some of the most interesting sculptures are.
