Name: _____
Class: _____

My Little Folktale

_____

by: _____

Once upon a time, there were three little _____ who lived in a _____ in the middle of the woods. They were very _____ little _____ except when their mother left them alone.

One day their mother went to the _____ to get food for supper. The little _____ stayed behind and got into a bit of trouble. They poured lots of _____ all over the floor! Then they _____ and hid under the _____.

When their mother returned and opened the door, she was not very _____.

"Oh, no! Look at the mess you made! " she cried.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Name: _____
Class: _____

The three little _____ began to cry. They hung their heads in shame and said, " Oh, we're very _____. We didn't mean to make such a mess."

Then she gave them a _____, a mop, and a broom. She said they must _____ and _____ every inch of the room.

All at once, they _____ with the mop, _____ with the broom, and wiped up every bit of the mess. They even worked through lunch! When they were done, the floor sparkled and _____.

Their mother was so glad, she gave them a kiss and let them go out to _____. The three little _____ had learned their lesson.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Name: _____
Class: _____

Folktale Word Bank

Choose any of these words as possible answers for your story.
Or, think of your own words for your story.

Nouns	Verbs	Adjectives
barn	brush	ashamed
bears	clean	cheerful
brush	cleaned	glad
chickens	gleamed	good
dogs	glowed	happy
garden	mopped	helpful
house	play	joyful
hut	ran	pleased
kittens	scrub	sad
milk	scrubbed	sorry
paint	skate	unhappy
pigs	slide	upset
shed	slipped
sink	squeaked
spaghetti	sweep
table	twinkled
towel

LIVEWORKSHEETS