

Helen Keller's Cause and Effect

Match the cause and effect in Helen Kelle's life.

Cause "WHY?"

Effect "WHAT?"

Helen got sick as a baby.	•	• Helen got mad and she threw things and hit people.
Helen could not tell people how she felt.	•	• Helen lost her sight and hearing.
Helen did not know that Annie was there to help her.	•	• Helen was able to learn more sight words and later she read books.
Helen learned the fingers signs for "water".	•	• Helen hit Annie and hurt her.
Helen learned to read Braille.	•	• Helen could not see or hear, but she was able to read, write, and learn about the world.
People liked Helen and called her "the miracle girl".	•	• Helen wrote many books