

SOME / ANY

Look at these examples:

I like some kinds of music. (Eu gosto de alguns estilos de música).

I like any kind of music. (Eu gosto de qualquer estilo de música).

I don't like any kind of music. (Eu não gosto de nenhum tipo de música).

I don't like some kinds of music. (Eu não gosto de alguns tipos de música).

Do you like any of these kinds of music? (Você gosta de algum desses tipos de música?)

Basically, we can say that "some" means "algum/alguns/alguma/algumas" and "any" also means "algum/alguns/alguma/algumas" in interrogative sentences, "qualquer (um/uma)" in affirmative sentences or "nenhum(a)" in negative sentences.

+ examples:

- I trust some of my friends. (Eu confio em alguns dos meus amigos).

- I trust any of my friends. (Eu confio em qualquer um dos meus amigos).

- I don't trust some of my friends. (Eu não confio em alguns dos meus amigos).

- I don't trust any of my friends. (Eu não confio em nenhum dos meus amigos).

Depending on the context, "some" can be translated to other forms:

- I have some money here. (Eu tenho um pouco de dinheiro aqui).
- Would you like some coffee? (Você quer um pouco de café?)
- He has some really crazy friends. (Ele tem uns amigos bem loucos).
- Would you like some help? (Você quer uma ajuda?)
- Would you like some more? (Você quer mais um pouco?)
- How about some beer? (Que tal uma cervejinha?)

And there's more: we can translate or not to translate "any" in some sentences. See:

- Is there any milk on the fridge? (Tem leite na geladeira?)
- Do you have any money on you? (Você tem dinheiro aí com você?)
- Does she have any brothers or sisters? (Ela tem irmãos ou irmãs?)

Just to finish, be aware that these tips about the use of some and any are the same for words like: somebody, someone, anybody, something, anything...

- Are you waiting for somebody? (Você está esperando alguém?)
- Would you like somebody to help you with that? (Você quer quer alguém te ajude com isso?)
- I'm hungry. I have to eat something. (Eu tô com fome. Eu tenho que comer alguma coisa).
