2. Write the numbers in numerals.

(a)

Hundred Thousands	Ten Thousands	Thousands	Hundreds	Tens	Ones
●●●● ●●●●	●● ●	●●● ●●	●●●● ●●●	●●

The number is _____.

(b)

Hundred Thousands	Ten Thousands	Thousands	Hundreds	Tens	Ones
●●	●● ●	●●●●● ●●●●	●●● ●●●	●●● ●●	●● ●

The number is _____.

(c) eight hundred and sixteen thousand, nine hundred and forty-three

_____

First, read the thousands parts: eight hundred and sixteen thousand, 816 000

Then, read the ones part: nine hundred and forty-three, 943

(d) six hundred and five thousand and five hundred _____

(e) one hundred and three thousand and thirty-one _____

(f) eight hundred and seventy thousand and three _____

(g) three hundred thousand and twelve _____

(h) twenty-two thousand, six hundred and ninety-seven _____

LIVEWORKSHEETS