

PRESENT PERFECT

Get it ready - English

1. Complete the dialogue with the verb in parentheses in the present perfect tense:

- Have you _____ (do) the laundry yet?
- No, I haven't. I've just _____ (get) home. I'll eat something and then I'll help you with the chores.
- What do you mean by saying "help you"? You live here too, don't you? I've _____ (tell) many times that I've _____ (live) alone before, so make a little effort, otherwise, you'll get out of here.
- Hey! Why are you talking like that? Have you already _____ (have) your pills?
- I'm talking like this because I'm tired. You don't do anything to help here. You've _____ (eat) pizza and didn't wash the dishes; you've _____ (go) for vacation and left your bedroom and OUR toilet messy... I'm getting sick of it.
- Fine. I promise I'll start being more cooperative.

2. Complete the sentences with ALREADY, JUST or YET.

- a) - Have you done what I asked you? - Yes, I've _____ finished setting the table. We can have dinner now.
- b) Have the kids arrived from school _____?
- c) Let's choose another film. I've _____ watched this one.
- d) I haven't been to Starbucks _____.
- e) We've _____ studied this topic. Let's change.
- f) They've _____ got home. We can go to sleep now.
- g) Have you been to the new mall _____? I've _____ visited it twice.
