SCORE ENGLISH: COHESIVE DEVICES

A cohesive device is not a gadget! Don't be intimidated by its name!
COHESIVE DEVICES are phrases or words that you can use in order to combine ideas or sentences. They are also known as the LINKING WORDS.

Here are some examples.

You can get up to 5 marks if you use at least 3 cohesive devices in your Part 1 and Part 2 essays.

Let's try them out!

A. Choose one suitable cohesive device for each sentence.

My friend Motthy is a singer. He is intelligent as well as / moreover hardworking. On top of that / However, he is creative. Meanwhile / However, he has never received any award in India. Nevertheless / Alternatively, he won a prize in an American competition last year. Therefore / Subsequently, he has decided to leave India and settle down in America.

B. Rewrite the following paragraph in your exercise book and add at least 3 cohesive devices!

Dear Mira,

Our examination is over. My friends and I decided to go on a holiday. We could not decide the exact place to go. Some of us want to go to Langkawi. Some wants to go to Penang. I have one condition. The trip should not be expensive. We do not have a lot of money. We should plan the trip well.

Love,

Anna

LIVEWORKSHEETS