Jasmine spent three dollars on a piece of cheese, but they didn't find a gift for Grace. They didn't see a candy stall, but they saw a stall with a lot of colorful soap. Alex chose a big bar of yellow soap. It smelled of lemons.
"It looks the same as my cheese!" laughed Jasmine.
"How much is it, please?" asked Alex.
"It's eight fifty for a big bar," the stallholder answered.
"Great!" he said. "I'd like a big bar, please. My sister loves soap."
Alex paid the stallholder. The cousins went home to prepare for the birthday celebrations.

Later, Alex gave Grace her gift. She happily smelled the gift, and suddenly her face changed. Something was wrong!
