How Charlie Chaplin failed

Charlie Chaplin will always be regarded as one of comedians of all time and a pioneer of film comedy. 1915 and 1921 there was a popular rumour that Chaplin entered Chaplin look-alike contest and lost. This was not an unbelievable story and in fact, if Chaplin ever entered such a contest he probably made sure that he didn't win just so that he could the absurdity of the situation.

August of 1920, The Straits Times from Singapore was the first newspaper to publish the story of Chaplin entering a contest and trying to impersonate himself, but we will probably never know how true it was.
