

KENSINGTON GARDENS

Kensington Palace is the residence of Prince
, second in line to the British throne, and his family.

In 1689, William III purchased the state and hired Sir Christopher Wren to turn it into a proper

Queen Victoria was born in this palace in and she was here when she heard she had become queen at the age of

The Dutch Garden was added in

It was once a hunting ground created by Henry VIII.

Princess Diana Memorial playground opened in Prince Albert was queen Victoria's beloved husband and he died at the age of 42. His stunning Memorial was unveiled in and faces the Royal Albert Hall.