

LOS CINCO SENTIDOS

THE SENSE OF

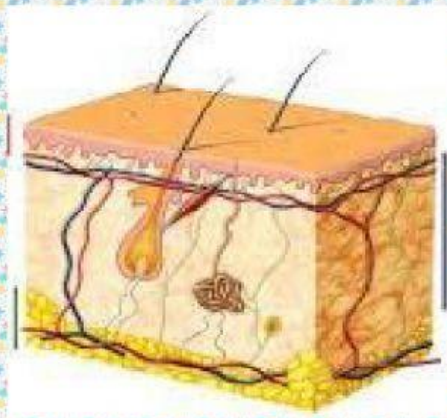

Olfactory receptors are in the nasal cavity next to the nasal passage.
We also need our sense of smell in order to taste the full flavour of our food.

THE SENSE OF

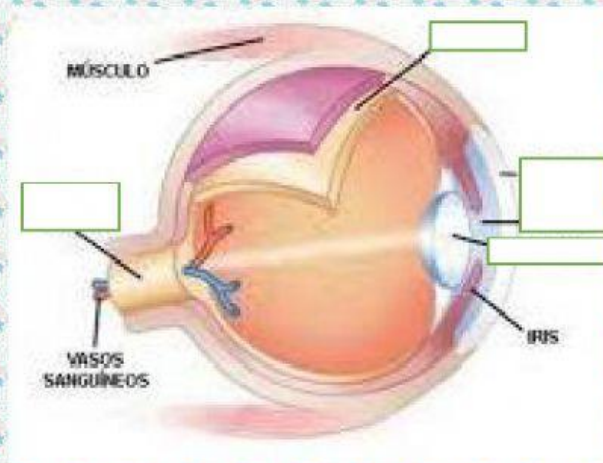

The taste receptors are small bumps on the tongue, we call these papillae and they help us recognise the difference between flavours and textures.

THE SENSE OF

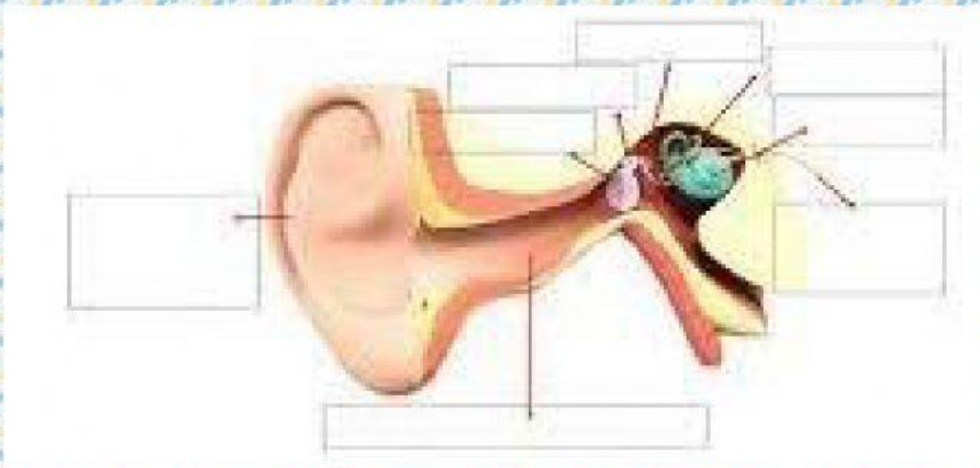

The _____ is the main organ of the sense of touch. Touch receptors detect _____ and _____.

THE SENSE OF

The _____ are the organs of sight. Light enters the eyes through the _____, the _____, and the _____. The retina then send the stimuli received to the brain, through the _____.

THE SENSE OF

The _____ are the organs of hearing .The _____ detects the sound and this then travels along the _____ , the _____ and the _____ . the sound reaches the _____ and finally the _____ and this sends the corresponding signals to the brain.