

Vocabulary

have a portion of (something) with another or others.

be given, presented with, or paid (something).

a long-distance running race

a person who is proficient in sports and other forms of physical exercise.

an administrative district of a city or country.

