

1. Change the words in the brackets to the correct form.

1. Some _____ (ENVIRONMENT) claim _____ (REGULATE) is the only way to achieve desired outcomes.
2. Science can build on previous _____ (KNOW) and develop a more sophisticated _____ (UNDERSTAND) of its topics of study over time.
3. Researchers remain optimistic that cloning will become an extremely _____ (USE) tool in the future.
4. In _____ (WILD) parks, we can see animals in danger of _____ (EXTINCT) such as tigers and rhinoceros.
5. Many plant and animal species are becoming _____ (DANGER) or extinct due to human's habitat _____ . (DESTRUCT).
6. In 2014, China explicitly outlawed the _____ (CONSUME) of endangered species, including tigers, whose bones and other organs are _____ (SUPERSTITION) believed to have magical _____ (CURE) powers.
7. _____ (COMMERCE) hunting of blue whales was ultimately banned in 1966.
8. While the tusks of Asian elephants are much smaller than African elephants, the Asian species is still _____ (POACH) for its ivory, meat, and skin.
9. The _____ (LUXURY) waterproof coat that insulates sea otters from the _____ (CHILL) waters that they inhabit almost led to its extinction.
10. Orangutans - _____ (RESTRICT) to the Southeast Asian islands of Borneo and Sumatra - are usually, making them difficult to track and study.