🔊 Listen for details. Listen to the conversation about how crowdsourcing is used to write a story. Circle the correct answer to complete each sentence.

1. Jamal is working _____.
   /dʒə'mɑl/
   a. alone
   b. with a couple of friends
   c. with a lot of people

2. Jamal met the other writers _____.
   a. at school
   b. in writing class
   c. online

3. Each person suggests _____ for the story.
   a. a character
   b. a sentence
   c. an ending

4. The story is _____.
   a. unpredictable
   b. unrealistic
   c. hard to follow

5. Jamal is working on a _____ story.
   a. fantasy
   b. love
   c. crime

6. The story isn't _____.
   a. realistic
   b. true
   c. well known

🔁 Look at your notes in A and your answers in B. What is a crowdsourced story? Complete the summary below. Compare your answers with a partner's.

To create a crowdsourced story, (1.) _____ work together. They don't work in an office. They work (2.) _____. Everyone contributes (3.) _____.

The people don't (4.) _____ each other, and they don't receive any (5.) _____ for their work.

Part of Jamal's story takes place in Madrid. What place do you think would make a good story setting?